

Opposition Fires Big Dept. Store in Cuba

By ROBERT BERRELLE

HAVANA (AP)—Cuba's biggest department store was a blackened ruin today, totally destroyed by Fidel Castro's growing opposition in fiery answer to his pledge to wipe out terrorism.

A blaze of "suspicious origin" also damaged a paper warehouse Tuesday night, and at least nine explosions rocked Havana suburbs during and after the two fires. The fires resulted in no deaths but 27 persons were hurt. Six of them were firemen whose engine overturned as it raced to the warehouse blaze. Three were in critical condition.

Government radio stations said U. S. central intelligence agents were responsible for the lightning-blast blaze that consumed the six-story nationalized El Encanto department store, estimated worth more than $7 million.

The night's incidents happened amid an atmosphere of anxiety throughout the island nation, whose leaders have been quietly mobilizing a huge military force against sporadic but growing armed resistance from within and an invasion threat from abroad.

The anti-Castro terrorists struck anew less than 24 hours after armed forces minister Raul Castro urged increased vigilance against saboteurs. Prime Minister Fidel Castro, his brother, said a week ago that terrorists would be liquidated.

The flames leveled El Encanto in little more than two hours and firemen spent hours after that sopping the smoldering ruins from touching off nearby buildings.

Just a week ago saboteurs blasted the store's display windows. They were repaired within two days in an obvious effort to shield the explosion's effects from the curious.

Construction workers have been working feverishly the past four months to rebuild another nearby department store razed by terrorists on New Year's Eve.

Meanwhile, during the night, a firing squad executed a university student accused of terrorism. Two accomplices got 30-year prison terms.

The execution of Abelardo Aguilar Alfonso, 19, came a few hours after a military tribunal convicted him on a charge of possessing detonators and other terrorist equipment. It was the 604th execution, by unofficial tribunals, since Castro assumed power in January 1959.

Aims to Void Redistrict Law

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—Rep. chairman of an organization aiming to nullifying a congressional redistricting law, said today he believed a meeting here tonight "may well dispel the tendency of certain groups to call our efforts small."

The yet-unnamed organization must get more than 25,000 signatures to set at the November, 1962, general election a referendum on the 1961 law, which has been the subject of much dissatisfaction in parts of southeast Arkansas.

If opponents succeed in getting a vote, the law would be held in abeyance and candidates for the congressional positions — four instead of the present six — would have to run from the state at large.

Camden Pays Pribute to the Raiders

CAMDEN, Ark. (AP)—In 30 seconds on April 18, 1942, 30 American airmen flew to fame under the command of Maj. Gen. Jimmy Doolittle.

Today, 19 years later, they greet their commander at a reunion that has become a yearly reminder of their heroism and daring.

The group that made the bombing run immortalized in "Thirty Seconds over Tokyo" holds its 19th annual reunion here this week. Doolittle arrives today to get things in high gear.

The raiders began arriving Thursday. Fifty-six of them are still alive but only 30 are expected for the reunion.

At a banquet Saturday night, Doolittle will recount how the twin-engine B25 bombers took off from bobbing aircraft carriers for the surprise bombing, then, because they couldn't land on the ships, flew on to China. Many were captured or forced down before they reached safety.

Among the guests will be Tung-Sheng Liu, a Chinese doctor who worked with the Chinese underground to help many raiders escape. Another will be Rear Admiral Henry Louis Miller, who taught the Raiders to take off their bombers from a carrier.

Most of the activities are social. The raiders will fly to Winrock Farm on Petit Jean Mountain Saturday for a luncheon with Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop Rockefeller. Today they will go boat riding on Lake Ouachita.

To be honored are Miss Emma Riley of Little Rock, former member of the board of trustees; Marvin Green of Stephens, past president of the board, and the Rev. Loyce Nelson, Baptist missionary to Japan and a 1947 graduate of Ouachita.

Dr. Ralph A. Phelps Jr. was re-elected to his ninth term as president of Ouachita.

Senate Probers Tangle at Price Fixing Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate investigators tangled in an angry, pole-bouncing row today over whether to conduct public hearings on price-fixing in the electrical equipment manufacturing industry.

Sen. Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn., chairman of the Senate Antitrust subcommittee, was accused by Sen. Alexander Wiley, R-Wis., of being a publicly sealer.

Kefauver, accusing Wiley of seeking to force the subcommittee to close up shop, snapped back that it was unbecoming for Wiley to make a statement like that. "You know it's not true," Kefauver said.

"Oh, you're not so naive as that," shot back Wiley.

In the course of the row, Sen. Roman L. Hruska, R-Neb., pounded the table and said he would not permit himself to be "buffeted around" by Kefauver. That was after Kefauver, in an effort to get going with actual testimony, had called a subcommittee meeting for late tonight.

One witness, an official of the Westinghouse Electric Corp., was sworn, but he never got a chance to say a word after taking the oath. Subcommittee members look up all the available time battling among themselves.

It was the second day that the subcommittee had been balked by its own bickering from starting an inquiry into the price-fixing conspiracies for which 20 companies and individuals were fined nearly $2 million by a federal judge in Philadelphia.

The witness who took the oath was John C. Fink, manager of the distribution apparatus department of Westinghouse's East Pittsburgh Division, Bloomington, Ind.

Wiley immediately raised a point of order against proceeding with public hearings, contending as he did Thursday that the publicity would prevent fair trials in the multimillion-dollar damage actions.

Will Demand Protection for Eichmann

By REI-MAN MORIN

JERUSALEM (AP)—Adolf Eichmann's defense attorney said today he would demand that the West German government "protect" the former Gestapo colonel from the judgment of Israel's courts.

Again challenging Israel's right to judge Eichmann on charges of having a major part in the mass murder of Jews under Hitler, defense counsel Robert Servatius declared: "Eichmann has a claim against the German state to protect him. If the state remains unresponsive, he can sue the state and he will do that."

Servatius warned the special Israeli court trying Eichmann that "intervention is still possible" by West Germany in the case.

The chief defense counsel made the statement as he heatedly contended that Eichmann should be tried by a German court. He asserted that appropriate German courts and laws are available to handle the case and denied that Eichmann came freely to Israel to stand trial.

Servatius' announcement came after he and Israeli Atty. Gen. Gideon Hausner made their concluding arguments on the right of the Israeli court to try Eichmann with the prosecutor refuting the defense challenge.

The fifth session of the trial lasted only an hour and 45 minutes and then recessed over the weekend.

Everett Justice Moshe Landau, who is presiding over the special court of three Israeli judges, announced that its decision on whether it is competent to try Eichmann—would be delivered Monday.

Eichmann, wartime chief of the Jewish affairs section of the Nazi Gestapo, is charged with responsibility in the death of six million Jews during World War II and other crimes.

Servatius came quickly to the question of trying Eichmann in West Germany.

He said that relations between West Germany and Israel are cordial and friendly.

But then he said: "Intervention is still possible and may still arise at any stage of this trial."

Justice Landau broke in to ask, "Is he a German citizen?"

"Yes," Servatius replied.

"No," Servatius answered. "His father gave up his Austrian citizenship."

Servatius returned to the attack on the competence of the Israeli court on two other points:

1. The assertion that Eichmann was kidnapped in Buenos Aires, Argentina, and did not come to Israel of his own free will.

2. That the order for the kidnapping "was done by order of the Israeli government."

3 Negroes Win Point in Rape Case

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Three Negro youths charged with raping a white girl added a third point Thursday to their demand for a speedy trial in a court where cases of Negroes have been delayed because of a federal court ruling.

An attorney for the youths said that postponement of their trial until September denied the equal protection of the law as guaranteed by state and federal constitutions.

Earlier, the attorney had asked for their trial or release on bond under constitutional provisions for speedy trials or right to take bond.

The youths are Riley Williams, 17, Troy Alexander, 16, and Marvin Aron Hammond, 16, all of North Little Rock. They are accused of raping a 16-year-old girl March 11 in a North Little Rock lover's lane.

Their trials were delayed by Circuit Judge William J. Kirby, along with those of other Negro defendants, because of an 11th U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals ruling which reversed Negro's rape conviction on grounds of discrimination on juries.

Kirby said trying Negroes until the ruling is clarified would be a waste of money, since all defendants apparently would be able to appeal under the court decision.

Bell to Expand Phone Service

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. today asked the Public Service Commission for permission to establish local telephone service for the Swan Lake area in eastern Jefferson County.

The company said the area has only long distance service to Pine Bluff and that about 50 customers need local service. Cost of the facilities was estimated at $33,000.

Rules on School District Case

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Atty. Gen. Frank Holt ruled today that a majority of a school district's electors must petition to separate a district into two or more new districts.

The opinion went to Daley M. Stacy, a member of the Ravenden Springs School District, which Stacy said wants to separate from the Randolph County District No. 1 and become independent. He said the larger district has had trouble voting tax increases for school improvements.

Holt's opinion said a district can be dissolved only by a district-wide election or a petition covering the entire district.

Paratroopers Evacuated in NW Laos

By JOHN RODERICK

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—The royal Laotian army has evacuated some 500 paratroopers it dropped northwest of Muang Kassy April 5.

Relays of American-piloted helicopters completed the pullout of the red-bellied fighters from the valley just above the town Thursday.

Moscow radio had reported the paratroopers were encircled a few days ago and it was believed they found their position untenable.

Western and other well-placed sources who confirmed the withdrawal were gloomy.

The paratroopers had been dropped near the north-south highway between Vientiane, the administrative capital, and Luang Prabang, the royal capital, after the pro-Communist Pathet Lao rebels had themselves dropped paratroopers above Vang Vieng.

April 3, Vang Vieng, a government military headquarters, is 80 miles above Vientiane and Muang Kassy is 32 miles north of Vang Vieng.

The royal army's drop had been interpreted here as a gesture to prove to the Pathet Lao that it packed power for a Sunday punch despite a succession of defeats.

Since the drop, the government had claimed its paratroopers cut the road north of Muang Kassy and blocked the Pathet Lao paratroopers. It was not known whether the decision to pull out followed a major engagement or whether the royal command felt the situation was hopeless and nothing could be gained by keeping the paratroopers there.

Life Term Escapes Jail in Texas

WEATHERFORD, Tex. (AP)—

Another manhunt was on today for killer Curtis Lee Jones, who is accused also of rape and four kidnappings in a flight toward Mexico last fall.

Jones, 38, locked a county jail matron, Mrs. Veda Prady, in his cell and escaped Thursday, armed with a knife.

More than 150 officers manned roadblocks and conducted a painstaking search throughout the night. They found no trace of the fugitive.

Jones, an Arkansas prison parolee, received a life sentence Feb. 8, at Boston, Tex., in the pistol slaying of ex-convict Doyle Jackson, 48, last October near Texarkana, Tex.

He later drew a five-year term for armed robbery in taking a car and forcing Mrs. Arthur Sears, 24, and her small daughter to leave their home near here with him Oct. 27. Jones freed them unharmed.

Jones, who has served prison terms in Arkansas and Texas for murder and armed robbery, had remained in jail here pending an appeal.

Mrs. Prady said she unlocked his cell to let Jones carry some paint into the jail's chapel. She said he produced a 10-inch butcher knife and ordered her into the cell.

Jones' wild flight from this area took place last October when he was sought for the Texarkana slaying. Officers finally captured him Nov. 1 near Laredo, on the Mexican border.

Youth Hit by Car, Injured Critically

RAY KING, 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton King, was critically injured late yesterday when he was struck down by an auto driven by Larry Davis, 18, also of Hope.

The incident occurred in the 900 block of West 6th Street. According to investigating City Officers Hollis and Pedron the child ran in front of the Davis car.

He sustained a severe head fracture and following treatment in a local hospital was rushed to the Arkansas State Baptist Hospital at Little Rock for special treatment.

Public Poll
on Bond Bill Considered

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov.
Orval E. Faubus said today he has discussed a public opinion poll on his proposed $60 million construction bond issue but he has not decided whether one will be made.

Gene Newsom, a professional poll taker, said Wednesday that he had made a "pilot poll" in Little Rock, but had not been told to make a statewide survey.

"I've been discussing the matter with Gene, but no decision has been made," Faubus told a news conference today.

The governor has made a practice of sampling public opinion before an issue goes to voters.

Faubus also said today that he expects an appeal to the Supreme Court regardless of how Pulaski Chancellor Guy Williams rules on constitutionality of his $14.5 million omnibus law.

However, Faubus said he would not personally make the decision to appeal if the law is invalidated.

There are enough people in the case to make the decision without me," he said.

Pulaski Rep. J. H. Cottrell Jr.
filed suit against the law. The attorney general's office is defending the law.

MORE PEOPLE ARE BUYING CHEVROLETS THAN ANY OTHER MAKE!

"When one car outsells all the rest the way this new Chevrolet is doing"—there's got to be a reason. And we can think of some pretty good ones. The clean-etched looks of the new Body by Fisher, for example.
The eager brand of "git" that's under the hood. The easy way it handles. Plus the added advantage of extra-cost options like triple-turbine Turbohydride.
But to sample all these reasons together, you have to get a Chevrolet out on the road. And there's where that Jet-smooth ride takes over with its own gentle kind of persuasion. If you weren't absolutely sure, you'd imagine you were riding in a far

No wonder people are buying more Chevrolets

DOROTHY DIX

Teen-Agers Blame Oldsters for Car Wrecks

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: We have a complaint, not a problem. People talk about teen-age drivers and how terrible they are. We've been driving more than a year and haven't had an accident yet. We think old fogies who travel 15 miles an hour, make left-hand turns out of right-hand lanes, stop for no reason and never give a signal, are the real culprits. They hold up traffic because they are afraid to step on the gas. Why isn't there an age limit on when to stop driving? —Sue, Kathy and Sandra

Dear Sue, Kathy and Sandra: You've touched a subject close to my heart. My husband is one of the organizers of the Golden Rule Club, the purpose of which is to keep motorists from killing and injuring each other on highways.

Statistics prove that young, not old drivers are responsible for the majority of automobile crashes. According to Accident Facts, a publication of the National Safety Council, there are more than 84 million motorists in the United States. Of this number, 46,000 figured in fatal accidents. Drivers under 20 were responsible for 11.6 per cent, those in the 20-25 age group for 16.8 per cent and those 75 and over for but 0.5 per cent of all fatal automobile accidents.

"The percentage of automobile accidents is higher among the young," commented my husband when I showed him your letter, "because youngsters, being immature and irresponsible, take more chances in driving. But they acknowledge their mistakes and mend their ways more readily than older people. That's why we concentrate on high schools in our Golden Rule Club work."

and going steady with a boy in another city. He is real nice except for one thing—he smokes. This year he is trying out for track team. Unless he quits smoking, he won't make it. He can't stop smoking. How can I help him? —Troubled

Dear Troubled: As with every problem of this nature, the individual must have the will to abstain. You can encourage him by being understanding but only he can help himself. Tell him the will to do is the power to do.

Dear Helen: I am in my early thirties, have three fine kids, and love life. My husband makes good money. We are happy except for one thing, he goes fishing or hunting every weekend without me. I would like to call in a dependable baby sitter and go to, but I'm never invited. My hubby's buddy takes his wife everywhere. I'm a good sport—why shouldn't I be asked too?—Left Out

Dear Left Out: One of the major causes of breakups in marriage is lack of communication between husband and wife. They just don't seem able to talk things over. Tell your husband what you have told me. If necessary, show him my reply. You certainly should be included in his holidays. Sharing is part of the joy of marriage.

NIGHT MARSHAL

CHAPTER XXXV

Chris Waddell's frugal, somewhat enigmatical statement of intent toward Ute Street, just before he left the store, had stayed with Norma Vespasian.

"I'll be back presently, Dad."

She hurried on to the porch and along it, her anxious glance reaching. And saw Waddell emerge from his office, move swiftly to the mouth of Ute Street and swing into it, the shotgun which rested across his arm signifying his intent.

Despite the distance she would have sent a call after him, but he had vanished into Ute before she could voice it.

A pair of miners plodded by, to eye her curiously. To get away from this gaze of the street, she turned into the office. The flavor of the cigarette Chris Waddell had so recently smoked in here, still hovered.

Then the sunlight at the open door was partly blotted out by the figure of Frank Scobie.

"Miss Vespasian!"

Her first impulse was to storm at this man, to charge him with selling out his badge of office. Instead, she gave him the word quite simply.

"It's Chris Waddell. Last night they brutally murdered a good friend of his. They had planned the same for him this coming night. So now—now he's gone."

down Ute Street after them—alone—

Frank Scobie was silent for a single long moment. Then:

"Not alone. No, he won't be alone!"

He was out of the room as quickly as he had entered.

Chris Waddell's first stop was the Staghorn. Only two were present. Neither was Breed Garvey, the man behind the bar being a new face to Waddell.

The other, he knew, a narrow-faced, lank-mustached person who no longer carried one arm in a sling, though continuing to favor it. At Waddell's entrance he turned statue-still, staring straight ahead.

Waddell shot his abrupt question at the bartender. "Garvey—where is he?"

He saw the beginning of a lie build in the bartender's eyes, so he shifted the shotgun slightly. The bartender blinked and made careful reply. "Seems I remember him sayin' somethin' about the Belle Union."

"You—Kelton?"

He shifted the shotgun again, putting the twin muzzle roughly in line with the one at the end of the bar.

"You want to try it now?" Waddell challenged.

"Try—what?" Kelton's words were dry and cautious.

"What you figured to do tonight in case Spence Munger missed me!"

The tension in Kelton's cheeks deepened and wariness cloaked him like it might an animal. "I still don't get it," he blurted.

"See if you can understand this. Get out of town! I'll be coming back this way presently. Don't let me find you around."

Rube Kelton watched him leave, then turned to the bartender. "Him trying to give me a float-er?"

"He didn't just try," corrected the bartender bluntly.

In the Belle Union, Elvie Spooner was seated at a poker table, making late breakfast on remnants left from last night's free lunch. Lee Spooner was still at the free lunch shelf, selecting his choice before joining his brother. The barkeep on duty paid them no attention, used to them having free run of the place.

Chris Waddell entered.

He thumbed a worn and twisted silver dollar from a pocket and dropped it in front of Elvie.

"Yours, I believe!"

Elvie rested his hands against the edge of the table, switching his hard glance from Waddell to the coin, then back to Waddell again. "Who says it's mine?" he demanded.

"Men who have seen it on you. It was picked up where Ace Mac-

Governor to By Pass Conference

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Oval E. Faubus will bypass this year's National Governors Conference because he doesn't think it worth the expense of traveling to Hawaii.

"These conference seem to be developing into more of an outing than a work conference anyhow," Faubus told newsmen today.

He was also critical of the way he said some governors changed positions after the conference.

Faubus said a round trip to Hawaii for the June 21-24 conference would cost $700.

"By the time I buy tickets for Mrs. Faubus and others who would want to go I would be out $4,000 or $5,000," he said.

Faubus could use state money for such a trip, but said he didn't think this would be proper.

"Besides when we agree to do one thing at the conference, they (the governors) turn around and do something else," Faubus added.

He said last year's conference agreed to oppose extension of a one-cent federal gasoline tax due to expire July 1 but that he recently got a telegram from Col. Gov. Steven McNichols, conference chairman, urging him to support the extension.

"He was in Washington and had a change of heart," Faubus said.

No Windows So How Could He See

FLORENCE, Italy (AP) — The top Soviet delegate to a space science symposium here said today the Soviet astronaut had no portholes or windows to look out of during his flight around the earth.

A. A. Blagonravov of the Soviet Academy of Science was questioned by a newsmen on how spaceman Yuri A. Gagarin was able to get the fascinating views of earth, sky and stars that he described in an interview with the Soviet news agency Tass.

Gagarin told how the night and day of the earth looked from space. He said it was easy to "distinguish the shores of continents, islands, big rivers and large reservoirs." He said he could even distinguish the squares of Soviet collective farm fields.

A newsmen asked Blagonravov if Gagarin's space vehicle had any openings—windows or portholes—through which to see. The white-haired Soviet scientist replied that it had none.

The reporter then asked how Gagarin could "see."

"By radio," Blagonravov replied, and proceeded into a meeting of the symposium without elaboration.

Swain was found, beat to death."

Elvie Spooner shoved the table at Waddell, upsetting it against him. At the same moment he yelled warning.

On the heels of the yell, Frank Scobie came in from the street.

Alert as he had been for trouble, Waddell could not avoid the drive of the table and the impact knocked him to one knee, which caused Lee Spooner to miss him with a bullet that cut through just above his head. Lee was ready to chop down for a second try when Waddell turned the shotgun loose, its roaring blast completely soaking up the echoes of Lee's shot.

The charge of buckshot was a wicked, deadly, close-packed hail of lead which raked the side and top of the bar and in part caught Lee. He died as four of the lead pellets chewed through his narrow skull.

Still on one knee, Waddell emptied the second barrel into the top of the poker table, guessing at the angle and guessing wrong.

Cincinnati's Unbeaten Reds in First Place

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The National League moves into its "second opener" today with Cincinnati's unbeaten Reds in first place after the Philadelphia Phillies managed to take advantage of Los Angeles mistakes and hand the Dodgers their first loss.

The Phils, scoring four runs in the last two innings, three of them gifts, salvaged the final game of their three-game set at Los Angeles Thursday night, winning 8-7. That left the Reds, who rapped the Chicago Cubs again, 5-2, alone on top.

San Francisco made it two in a row over the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates, winning 8-5 in 12 innings for the Giants' first decision over relief ace Elroy Face in three years. The Milwaukee Braves went 11 innings before downing the St. Louis Cardinals 5-4.

The Cardinals, who split the two-game series at Milwaukee, open their home schedule tonight against Cincinnati with Curt Simmons facing Jay Hook of the Reds. The Cubs open their Wrigley Field season in an afternoon game against Milwaukee as Bob Anderson opposes the Braves' Bob Buhl. The Giants and Dodgers swap foes.

The American League's expanded schedule, so far restricted to just five games because of bad weather, counted another complete loss Thursday with rain, snow and cold barring play. Only three games are scheduled today. Cleveland moves to Washington and Minnesota to Baltimore for night games with the Chicago White Sox at Detroit this afternoon.

After blasting from behind on two-run homers by Pancho Herrera and Tony Gonzalez, the Phillies dropped back again in the seventh at Los Angeles when the Dodgers scored three for a 6-4 lead. The Phils then moved ahead again with three in the eighth on a double by Tony Curry and a single by Gonzalez.

The Dodgers tied it 7-all in their eighth on an unearned run. The Phils then put it away when winning reliever Dick Farrell singled and scored on a two-out error by losing reliever Ed Palmquist in the ninth. It was the first

Steak Could Be Best Bet for Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Steak will be the treat at some dinner tables Sunday, judging by the offerings of supermarkets and neighborhood groceries this week.

In the Middle West and Far West, the favorite seems to be round steak, while sirloin and porterhouse are played up in the East, Middle Atlantic regions and other sections of the Midwest.

Prices in stores having steak sales are about unchanged from a year ago.

Chuck roast is offered as a bargain basement running mate for steak in some stores, while offerings of other meats are pretty well varied. Fryers are expected to become less expensive with the approach of summer, but prices are mixed this week with the birds up 1 to 8 cents a pound in some areas and down 2 to 4 cents in others.

Supplies of fish continue heavy in seaport and Great Lakes areas. Some of the offerings include haddock and fresh bass fillets, fried scallops, smelts and cod steaks.

Supplies of fresh fruits and vegetables this week are artichokes, topped beets, Florida and California celery, broccoli, cabbage, kale, lettuce, green onions and old crop Eastern potatoes.

New crop red and white potatoes from Florida are rated a good buy this week and the first California long whites are fairly expensive.

Other good buys among vegetables this week include asparagus, beans, bunched beets, carrots, cauliflower, Chinese cabbage (longer and with more compact

Porkers Start Annual Spring Grid Practice

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Razorbacks begin the most important part of their year's football training today — spring practice.

It will last four weeks, and when the lights go out on the final Red-White game in Little Rock's War Memorial Stadium May 13, Coach Frank Broyles will have a pretty good idea of who will be playing where in the Southwest Conference wars next fall.

Broyles believes in doing his hard work in the spring. He has very little tough action in fall practice, and no serious scrimmage work during the season.

In the past two years, spring practice has been the make or break time for the Razorbacks. And in the past two years it has turned out Southwest Conference champions.

In keeping with a new system Broyles set up last year, some of his established stars will not be in the spring drills. They are half-back Lance Alworth, end Jimmy Collier and linemen Dean Garrett and John Childress.

Broyles said this week all practice sessions this spring will be closed and only Razorback Club managers, students and faculty will be admitted to the May scrimmage game here.

The May 13 game in Little Rock will be open to the public.

Halfback Darrell Williams, a two-year veteran, will not participate in spring drills until baseball season ends April 25. Then he'll get in two weeks of work.

Fourteen 1960 lettermen will take part in the drills. In addition, halfback Paul Dudley, a 1959 letterman who missed last season, will be back for 1961 and spring drills are expected to be important for him.

The biggest hole Broyles has to fill is the center-linebacker spot vacated by Wayne Harris. Likely candidates are Jerry Linberger, a letterman, and Jerry Moore, a reserve last year. He also must find fullbacking help now that letterman Curtis Cox has been declared ineligible. Billy Joe Moody, Mickey Cissell and Jim Worthington are top candidates.

Broyles can field a first unit of lettermen, but beyond that there are may positions up for claiming.

Indictment in Newest Cage Scandal

NEW YORK (AP) — The grand jury investigating the newest college basketball scandal has returned its first indictment today amid indications it could be just the beginning.

Aaron Wagman, one of two New York gamblers arrested on charges of bribing college players, was indicted for trying to bribe a detective. Specifically, Wagman was named in a three-count indictment which accused him of offering two $50 bribes to David Campbell, detective, from the office of Dist. Atty. Frank Hogan.

Wagman, who was free pending appeal of a Florida conviction on charges of attempting to bribe a university of Florida football player, also was accused of offering to cut in Campbell on a share of an unidentified fixed basketball game in return for information on the district attorney's investigation.

The indictment Thursday named no games or players but was considered the first step into what could be a widespread expose.

The district attorney's office, when Wagman and Joseph Hackman were arrested March 17, indicated the investigation might turn up activities dwarfing the scandal of a decade ago.

Wagman, when he was arrested, was accused by Asst. Dist. Atty. John Andreoli of paying $1,500 to an unidentified University of Connecticut player in connection with a Connecticut-Colgate game at Hamilton, N.Y., March 1.

Hackman, Andreoli said, was accused of paying two Seton Hall players $1,000 each concerning a game with Dayton Feb. 9 at Madison Square Garden.

Midway Church Centennial

Midway Church, five miles west of Prescott on Highway 24, will hold its Centennial Celebration the week of April 17-23. Services will be held each night at 7:30 with former pastors of the Church doing the preaching. The program Sunday includes luncheon and fellowship at noon and the Rev. S. T. Baugh of Little Rock will be the morning speaker.

Methodism was organized at Midway in 1861. In the beginning, a brush arbor or camp shed was used as a place of worship and later a log church (about 22 by 30 feet) was built which was remodeled in 1885. The Church was used as a Methodist Church and a school house. The seats were hewn slabs from oak trees 18 inches wide. In the 1880's (exact date unknown) Rev. Alexander Avery bought 40 acres where the church was located and deeded 10 acres for the church and cemetery. Rev. Avery was the first pastor of Midway Church. Records show the first trustees were T. W. Anderson, John Vaughn, J. E. Snell, J. H. Arnold, and J. H. Ward. On April 4, 1887, Tom W. Anderson organized a Sunday School at Midway, and was superintendent 11 years.

Midway received its name from its location. It was half-way or midway between Wallaceburg and Moscow on an early road leading from one of early trading centers to the other. The church was located on a road that branched off the old stagecoach road at Wallaceburg running south and intersected the Prairie DeAnne Road about a mile or more south of the church. The Prairie DeAnne Road was travelled east to Moscow Village near the present Rosston Road. A road from Okolona known as the Elkins Ferry Road intersected or crossed the Wallaceburg-Moscow Road near where Miller's Station is today. These roads made this point a convenient place for worship.

This church was rebuilt in 1918 and Sunday School rooms were added in 1928. This is the present church building in which we worship.

Midway was originally a part of the Moscow Circuit which was composed of Moscow, Emmet, Holly Grove, Midway, Ebenezer, and Hopedale. The parsonage was located at Moscow. Later Midway became the head of the circuit with the parsonage located at Midway. In 1885 the parsonage was moved to Emmet where it now remains. Later Emmet became head of the circuit and today this circuit is composed of Emmet, Midway, DeAnn, and Holly Grove.

The unconfirmed accounts said the Kennedys will be lunch guests of Queen Elizabeth II at Buckingham Palace during their one-day stay.

"Perhaps they now have jobs or perhaps they have left the state. When a person has been unemployed and without benefits for nearly a year, he has to do something."

Some people think, the spokesman said, that the Kennedy program automatically qualifies an ex-unemployed worker for an extra 13 weeks of benefits.

However, the period of new benefits, depends on the worker's original qualifications and he can't draw for more than half the number of weeks he was entitled to under the original program.

Amounts of the benefits under the extended program will be the same as the worker drew from the regular program.
